

North East Cyber Crime Seminar – 23rd October 2024

Understand current Cyber Crime threats and the extent to why the legal sector are being targeted by cyber criminals and hackers. Receive valuable advice on fraud awareness and the current trends in Cyber Crime direct from Northumbria Police's Cyber Crime team. A Northumbria University Professor will give you a glimpse into EncroChat and the impact this criminal activity will continue to have on the criminal justice system. Discover the best way to keep your business safe by ensuring the security of the client and staff data you hold.

Details of the Event

This event starts at 5.30pm on Wednesday 23rd of October. It will be held at the offices of Womble Bond Dickinson, The Spark, Draymans Way, Newcastle Helix, NE4 5DE.

This seminar is free of charge and is open to all Newcastle Law Society members. Light refreshments will be provided during the seminar.

Programme

6.00pm

Dave Tennant,
Force Specialist, Cyber Protect & Prepare Officer

7.00pm

Professor Adam Jackson
Associate Professor of Law
Deputy Head, Northumbria University Law School.

7.30pm

Gregor Angus
Senior Business Development Manager, Amiqus

8.00pm

Light refreshments & Networking

Presenters

Northumbria Police

- What is Cyber Security?
- Why are the legal sector being targeted?
- What are the types of cyber attacks and how to defend against them.

Northumbria University

- EncroChat - A glimpse into the future of complex criminal investigations.
- What lessons can be learned to improve the capabilities of the criminal justice system.

Amiqus

- One key step in minimising cyber crime is knowing your client and having strong staff vetting policies & procedures.
- Carry out all necessary checks through Amiqus, as well as gathering & sharing information in a secure manner.
- Keep your business safe, ensure the security of the client & staff data you hold.